[00:00] Hello everyone, and welcome back to the show.

[00:03] Today we are talking about travelling on a small budget.

[00:08] My guest has visited more than forty countries in the last five years. ★

[00:14] Thanks for having me. It's great to be here.

[00:18] So, where did your first trip take you?

[00:22] I went to Portugal with a backpack and almost no money, but it changed the way I see the world. ★

[00:31] Did you plan everything in advance?

[00:35] Not at all. I booked the first two nights and then I just followed the people I met along the way.

[00:44] That sounds risky. Weren't you worried about getting lost?

[00:49] Honestly, getting lost was the best part of the whole experience. ★

[00:56] What advice would you give to someone who has never travelled alone?

[01:01] Start small. Choose a city close to home, stay for a weekend, and notice how you feel.

[01:10] Also, learn a few phrases in the local language. People really appreciate it.

[01:18] I couldn't agree more. Let's take a short break and we'll be right back.

[01:26] Welcome back. We are speaking with an experienced traveller about life on the road.

[01:33] One thing I always carry is a small notebook where I write down the words I don't know.

[01:41] That is a fantastic habit for learning a language, isn't it?

[01:47] Absolutely. Every evening I review them and try to use them the next day.

[01:55] Do you ever feel homesick after so many months away?

[02:00] Sometimes, yes. But a video call with my family usually fixes it.

[02:07] Well, that's all the time we have for today. Thank you so much for joining us.

[02:13] Thank you for the invitation. It was a pleasure.
